

VISITOR'S MAP

- 1 Introduction
In front of the castle entrance
- 2 Saint Maurice Church
In front of the church
- 3 Saint Maurice Church: The Nave
Inside the church
- 4 Saint-Maurice Church: The Chancel
Inside the church
- 5 The Parsonage
Behind the church
- 6 La Place du Pilori
Beneath the statue
- 7 The School
9, Grande rue
- 8 The House of General Schobert
12, Grande rue
- 9 Agriculture and Trade in Blandy
At the end of the ruelle des Clos
- 10 The Chenevières House
Opposite number 29, Grande rue
- 11 The Saint-Martin Priory
Ruelle Fouquet (moving sequence)
- 12 The Remains of the Saint-Martin Priory
18-22, rue Saint-Martin
- 13 The Fair Ground
In front of the field, rue Saint-Martin (moving sequence)
- 14 The Old Rue Courte Soupe
Rue Raoul Kourilsky (moving sequence)
- 15 Local Figures of the Resistance
Opposite number 2, rue Vauchèvre

- 16 The presbytery and the washhouse
Opposite number 1, rue de la Fontaine
- 17 La Place du Colombier
Next to the apple-press

◀◀◀ ● To listen while walking

AUDIO-GUIDE VISITS OF THE ANCOEUR VALLEY

The Seine-et-Marne General Council, in partnership with Seine-et-Marne Tourisme, is happy to invite you to discover the richness of the Ancoeur Valley through three audio-guide circuits. In this way you can visit the castle of Blandy-les-Tours, its village and the Saint-Martin collegial in Champeaux.

Below you will find practical information that will be useful in planning your arrival as well as several suggestions for further visits.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION:

Blandy-les-Tours

Access:

From Paris: join the A5 in direction of Troyes, exit n°16 Châtillon-la-Borde, then follow the D47

From Melun: take the D408 then follow the D47, or the N36, then the D215, via Vaux-le-Vicomte

From Provins: take the D408 then follow the D47

Train and Bus:

Melun station: direct trains from Paris, 25 mins

From April to October, on weekends and bank holidays, the Châteaubus shuttle service links Melun station and the castle of Blandy. Details and schedule can be found on www.tourisme77.fr under "Travel"

Contact details:

Château de Blandy-les-Tours

77115 Blandy-les-Tours

Reception and information: 01 60 59 17 80

E-mail: chateaublandy@cg77.fr

Opening hours:

10:00 - 12:30 and 13:30 - 18:00 from April 1st to October 31st

10:00 - 12:30 and 13:30 - 17:00 from November 1st to March 31st

Open every day, except Tuesdays. Closed December 25th, January 1st and May 1st

Castle entrance fee:

Full fare: €6

Reduced fare: €4 (from 19 to 25 year olds, over 60s and recipients of AAH)

Free for under 18s, the unemployed and recipients of CMU or RSA Groups welcomed upon reservation 48 hours in advance

Collegiate Church of Champeaux

Access:

From Paris: join the A5 in direction of Troyes, exit n°15 Saint-Germain-Laxis, then follow the D57

From Melun: take the D636, then the D215, via Vaux-le-Vicomte

From Provins: take the D619, then the D215

Contact details:

Collégiale Saint-Martin

Place du Cloître

77720 CHAMPEAUX

For information contact the town hall: 01 60 66 91 88

Entrance free, open every day from 9:00 to 18:00

TO DISCOVER NEARBY:

Descriptive tour of the Javot and Ancoeur Valleys

Situated around the castles of Blandy and Vaux-le-Vicomte, the two valleys offer an exceptional natural setting and contain several villages typical of the Seine-et-Marne department.

You are invited to explore signposted touristic circuits linking 18 villages.

Information at www.tourisme77.fr

Vaux-le-Vicomte Castle

This castle, legendary estate of Nicolas Fouquet built in the 17th century, was accomplished by the greatest artists of the period who went on to participate in the construction of the Palace of Versailles: Louis Le Vau, Charles Le Brun and André Le Nôtre.

77950 Maincy - Tel: 01 64 14 41 90 - www.vaux-le-vicomte.com

Guided visits and audio-guides specific to the castle

Open every day from 10:00 to 18:00 from late March to early November

AND IF YOU HAVE A BIT MORE TIME:

Fontainebleau Castle

With over 1500 rooms set in the heart of 130 hectares of parks and gardens, this jewel of the French Renaissance is the only royal and imperial castle to have been continually inhabited for 7 centuries.

77300 Fontainebleau

Tel: 01 60 71 50 70 - www.musee-chateau-fontainebleau.fr

Guided visits and audio-guides specific to the castle.

Open every day except Tuesdays, January 1st, May 1st and December 25th

09:30 - 17:00 (October to March), 09:30 - 18:00 (April to September)

Historical circuit of Melun

A walking circuit with 29 stages indicated by plaques made of enameled lava spread throughout the town centre.

An accompanying leaflet can be downloaded online or purchased at the Tourist Office (18, rue Paul Doumer 77000 Melun) Tel: 01 64 52 64 52 - www.ville-melun.fr

Discover all our tourist attractions on the website www.tourisme77.fr and make all the reservations for your weekends (accommodation, entrance tickets, shows, leisure activities) on the website www.resa77.fr.

Seine-et-Marne Tourisme

11 rue Royale, 77300 Fontainebleau

Tel: 01 60 39 60 39